V. DIRECTOR/STAFF REPORTS

A. Director's Updates

1. Director Eppink introduced Travis Morton, who was recently promoted to the natural resources manager position, to the board. The board welcomed Natural Resources Manager Morton who shared that he is ecstatic to be a part of the park district team. He is looking forward to continuing to serve the county.
2. Director Eppink reported that Brooke Nekich has been hired as the project coordinator, Isaac Smith is returning as the planning manager, Tim Schirripa has been promoted from a temporary seasonal position to a full-time resource management specialist position, and Chuck Mashburn has been hired as a full-time police officer.
3. Director Eppink recapped that from 4 - 7 p.m. on September 18, he and the three board commissioners, Legal Counsel Holland, Deputy Director Stray, and Business Manager Chaney toured several park sites near Chippewa Lake, in Lodi, and in Harrisville Township. No deliberation was had. The tour was for informational purposes only.
4. Director Eppink reported that the last of three staff field trips to the same locations as above was completed yesterday. These opportunities were for the staff to see project sites and newer acquisitions.
5. Director Eppink noted that he will be speaking with Medina City Council's Public Properties Committee next week to discuss planned improvements at Lake Medina. Per the park district's lease agreement, we're to communicate, in advance, improvements on city-owned land.
6. Director Eppink reported that work is underway with OHM Advisors to create the Killbuck Lake Master Plan. A walk with stakeholders is scheduled for October 26 at 11 a.m. Natural Resource Manager Morton and Park Planner Kleshinski will join the director on the walk. Director Eppink invited the board members to attend.

7. Director Eppink reported that he and Chairman Neate hosted a lunchtime webinar for the Ohio Parks and Recreation Association (OPRA) on October 8 to discuss the board-director relationship. A few dozen attendees from around the state participated. The webinar was part of a four-part OPRA series for park directors and board members, the last two of which will be held in 2025.
 - a. Chairman Neate shared that it was a good program with approximately 40 attendees.
 - b. Commissioner Davis, who attended the webinar, commented that both Director Eppink and Chairman Neate did a good job representing Medina County Park District.
8. Commissioner Venner asked the director how the recent all-staff meetings went last month. The director replied that the meetings went really well and that Consultant Cathy Posner was helpful in facilitating the discussions. Director Eppink shared that he emailed a summary of the meeting discussions to the leadership team. Commissioner Davis asked that the summary also be emailed to the board. Chairman Neate suggested that Director Eppink be sure to share with the staff how the administration is following through on the discussions and the goals established. Commissioner Venner agreed and stated that follow up and communication with the staff are critical.

B. Staff Updates

1. Business Manager Chaney reported that she is still awaiting word from the state auditors regarding completion of the FY'22/'23 audit and subsequent follow-up meeting.
2. Natural Resources Manager Morton commented that he is excited to be a part of expanding the park district's opportunity to really "wow" the public.
 - a. Chairman Neate stated that the board appreciates Mr. Morton attending the meeting and his interest in taking on the responsibilities of managing the natural resources department. Chairman Neate asked Mr. Morton for a suggestion of one thing the board should do. Mr. Morton suggested that the board members continue to keep open minds on upcoming projects and ideas and to continue to think creatively for unique opportunities for county residents.
